

Museum Service Image Reproduction: terms, conditions, licences and fees

If you would like a copy of one of our images please get in touch. We consider each request individually so please be patient, we will get back to you. Our scale of charges is subject to change and the most up to date version is published on the East Lothian Council website. Remember you can also buy copies of many of our images from www.scran.ac.uk. All prices are per image and inclusive of VAT. The terms and conditions are noted below.

There are several different categories of copyright that apply to our material. 'Material' refers to all text, images, audio and video. Some material is in copyright, for some there is no known copyright and some is held under a creative commons licence. This licence means that you can republish this material for any non-commercial purpose as long as you give attribution back to the East Lothian Council as the creator and that you do not modify the work in any way. A more detailed explanation of this licence is available from Creative Commons.

Terms and Conditions

The following standard conditions apply to the granting of authority to reproduce images. Other conditions, applicable to individual cases may be appended. No application for authority to reproduce images will be considered without a signature on the relevant form, confirming acceptance of these conditions.

1. The supply of photographs held by East Lothian Council Museums Service does not in any way imply the granting of authority to reproduce copies, in any form, for any purpose except as allowed under the terms of the Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike 2.5 Scotland License (see <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-sa/2.5/scotland/>). Authority for reproduction for any other type of publication, broadcast or exhibition must be obtained by completing an application form.
2. The museum reserves the right to deny authority to reproduce any image at its discretion.
3. Charges made for reproduction will take into account factors such as the purpose of the licence, the distribution of the publication and the type of organisation seeking the licence. The current scale of charges is detailed here but may be varied at any time, without prior notice. If requested, a formal quotation, binding for a period of one month, will be given.

4. Payment of an agreed fee will give the purchaser the non-exclusive licence to reproduce the image, in the agreed manner only, for a single print run (or production, as appropriate). Reproduction rights for television are for a single showing of the programme. A larger or repeated print run/production or broadcast may be subject to repeat fees.
5. The authority to reproduce given by payment of these fees extends only to the initial applicant. The authority does not imply any right to the purchaser to authorise subsequent reproduction by a third party other than under the terms of the Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike 2.5 Scotland License.
6. Payment may be made by cheque, on receipt of invoice, in pounds sterling payable to "East Lothian Council". Authority to reproduce the image is dependent upon receipt of full payment.
7. In addition to the reproduction fee, a copy of the publication is also required.
8. Copyright will be retained by East Lothian Council or other copyright holder as indicated in the acknowledgments.
9. Unauthorised reproduction will infringe copyright and may render the infringer liable to civil penalties. Where works of art are still within copyright, it is the responsibility of the applicant to obtain permission to reproduce the work from the holder of the copyright.
10. You must ensure that any caption relating to the image used is correct and reflects the description mentioned in the form. An acknowledgement of the source of the image should be made on every occasion of publication in the form: "Courtesy of East Lothian Council" unless otherwise stated. The acknowledgement shall be made in such a way that it can be identified with the individual image to which it applies.
11. Reproduction fees may be waived for educational or academic use, and at the discretion of the Team Manager - Museums.
