

Railway Station & site for proposed Park & Choose facility

Former mineral railway route

The existing requirement for new landscaped edge here will define new defensible Green Belt boundary

New housing

Stadium

Employment land

Battle of Pinkie (site of)
10th September 1547

Salter's Road

Wallyford A1(T) interchange

Site for Waste Transfer Station

Scheduled Ancient Monument

Dolphinstone A1(T) interchange

A1(T)

Existing landscape framework around site extends into it, albeit severed by the A1(T). This wider landscape pattern is an important feature of the area and one which the development must integrate with, complement and extend into the expansion area

CONTEXT PLAN B

East Lothian Council
John Muir House
Court Street
Haddington
www.eastlothian.gov.uk

Scale 1:7000
Date: 5/1/09

Map Key:

- Key Views
- ⚡ Commercial Waste Recycling Facility
- ⚡ Approx. Location of Disused Mine Shafts
- Stone Walls
- Riverbed Ravine
- Former Mineral Railway Route
- Bus Routes
- ▨ Core of the Battle of Pinkie
- Wallyford Park
- SAM
- - - Rights of Way
- (Existing Trees
- Existing Planting
- 1 Proposed Waste Transfer Station
- 2 Proposed Park & Choose Facility
- Proposed Housing & Stadium
- Proposed Employment Land

This map is reproduced from Ordnance Survey material with the permission of Ordnance Survey on behalf of the Controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office. © Crown copyright. Unauthorised reproduction infringes Crown copyright and may lead to prosecution or civil proceedings. OS Licence 100023383