

East Lothian Council

FOI Ref: 2018/505815

- Number of police based in schools

There are no Police Scotland officers based in any East Lothian Council schools.

- Which schools they are based in

None

- By whom and how these police are funded

Community police officers may visit schools to support appropriate education programme. They may also visit schools as part of their regular liaison duties with the community. There are no police officers based in a school e.g. with an office.