Subject: RE: Update

Morning

Thanks so much for your detailed response. While the outcome of the investigation was inconclusive, procedures and expectations have been put in place to ensure safety of children moving forward.

The original date of the meeting was and I planned to attend. Unfortunately this is now on when I am on annual leave. This would be the forum to discuss and document It is important that services are represented so would it be possible to re-arrange this meeting?

I am very happy to discuss further. Thanks again |

Warmest regards

Hi

I hope you had a great weekend?

I wanted to update you in regards to our telephone call we had on Friday about

I have worked with [redacted] closely, who has carried out an investigation of the incident that you'd informed me about.

[redacted] sourced witness statements from all staff who were providing care for [redacted] on the given day, none of the staff saw what happened, and therefore without taking sides, we concluded the investigation to be unsubstantiated.

However to promote best practice we have made the change to ensure [redacted]

[redacted] also informed the [redacted] about the potential incident [redacted] and therefore everything has been transparent with them.

[redacted] continues to work extremely closely with the setting to improve the quality of care and education all children receive.

I wanted to discuss with you the options of offering [redacted] another place within another setting in East Lothian

I'm happy to have a further discussion about this, where we can explore options that are best

Kind regards,
