SUBJECT: Amendment to Reserving Places at West Barns Primary School for Catchment Pupils Who Move Into the Catchment Area during the Academic Year 2020/21

1 PURPOSE

- 1.1 To inform members of the recent amendment, under delegated powers, of the number of reserve places at West Barns Primary School for academic year 2020/21.

2 RECOMMENDATIONS

- 2.1 Members are asked to note the amendment, under delegated powers, to the number of reserve places for pupils moving into the catchment area during the academic year 2020/21 for West Barns Primary School.

The amendment of the number of places reserved from 1 place in each class in the school to ALL places in the school.

3 BACKGROUND

- 3.1 On the 17 March 2020, the Education Committee agreed a number of reserve places in schools for catchment pupils who move into the catchment area during the academic year 2020/21.
- 3.2 The Committee also agreed to delegate any changes to the number of places held in reserve to the Head of Education in consultation with the Convener, should the number of pupils requiring a place at the school significantly change.
- 3.3 On the 17 March 2020, the Education Committee agreed to 1 place in each class being held in reserve for catchment pupils who move into the West Barns Primary School catchment area during the academic year 2020/21.

Due to an increase in the number of pupils attending the school, Members are asked to note the amendment, under delegated powers, to the number of reserve places for pupils moving into the catchment area during the academic year 2020/21 for West Barns Primary School from 1 place in each class in the school to ALL places in the school.
